5 The draft Bye laws have been framed under section 51(1)(a) and (b) of the Mysore City Municipalities Act, 1933 clause (a) of this section vests power to frame bye-laws in respect of municipal markets and clause (b) vests power to frame bye-laws for licensing and regulating private markets The proposed bye-laws cover only municipal markets It is perhaps necessary to incorporate a separate set of bye-laws for licensing etc of private markets, as provided in the bye-laws of Bangalore City Municipality

Bye Law No 2.-

In clause c of this bye-law, it is necessary to specify the places used for the sale of fish

Draft Bye laws of Davangere City Municipality for regulating markets

Bye-Laws No 6

This bye-law provides for the payment of rent by every shopkeeper etc to the Sanitary Inspector or any other authorised person. The powers and duties of the Sanitary Inspector have not been mentioned anywhere in any of these bye-laws Certain powers have however been conferred on the Market Inspector (Vide bye-law 14) Whether the power of collecting rent may be entrusted to the Market Inspector, as has been provided in the Bye-laws of Bangalore City Municipality, or the existing provision may continue is a matter for the decision of the administrative section

Bye-Law No 34 —

This bye law has to be modified by omitting the provision prescribing penalty for continuing offence

15/1948

In addition to the above remarks, it seems that the following should be omitted

(1) The portion within brackets in bye-law 14 Unless specific power of confiscation conferred under the Act the bye law Cannot provide for such confiscation

2) The portion within brackets in bye-law 16 The bye law cannot empower the destruction of any dog found without a collar in a public market

3) Bye-law 32. The liability referred to in this bye-law arises by virtue of section 186 of the Act, and it Cannot be by the reason of bye-law

(4) (Other spelling and verbal changes necessary have also been made in the private places)

Before the bye-laws are sanctioned by the Government Clause (c) of bye-law No 2 will have to be completed

Draft Bye-laws of Devengere Municipality for the regulation of markets

395/PL

The draft Bye-laws have been scrutinised and corrections, wherever necessary, have been carried out

Bye-laws 38 to 48 deal with the licensing of cooks and carriers Bye-law No 45 prescribes penalty for the breach of the bye-laws by a licensed cooky or carrier and empowers the Municipal Commissioner to ~~suspend~~ suspend or remove him from the register of licensed cooks and carriers Again, bye-law No 48 prescribes penalty (Sum which may extend to Rs 50/-) for the breach of any of these bye-laws when not otherwise provided for. In between bye laws 45 and bye-law 48, there is no bye-law (except bye-law No 47) which comes within the purview of the penal provision contained in Bye-law No 48. Hence, this bye-law may be recast thus "Any breach of bye ~~Sections to be inserted~~ 38 (and 47) shall render the offender liable on conviction to fine which may extend to Rs 50/-"

The rest of the Bye-laws are in order
